Journeys to the Past

Journey Into the Lifestyle of the California Indian

La Mirada, CA, January 2, 2009 – La Mirada Theatre for the Performing Arts continues its 2008-2009 Programs for Young Audiences series with Journeys to the Past. This large-scale performance presents the culture and history of the Acjachemen Nation in an entertaining and meaningful way. Performances are Sunday, January 25, 2009 at 1:30 and 3:30 p.m.

Journey back in time and view a California Indian Village - The Village of Acjachamai. See on stage their dwelling, a kiitcha, tribal women, basket weaving and cooking their wi'wish soup (acorn soup). Audiences will be enchanted by the storyteller Jacque Nunez, an Acjachemen descendant (Southern California Indian). She will teach songs and share her culture in a most delightful way.

Young audiences will be captivated by all the indigenous instruments and will have the chance to observe the beauty of the Intertribal Pow Wow dancers. Children will walk away with an awareness of taking care of Mother Earth and getting in touch with their own unique heritage. This show will let you become a part of the past and realize the significance of many tomorrows to come!

LMT's Programs for Young Audiences is designed to give children ages 5 and up and their families exposure to a diverse mix of national and international touring stage acts. The season will continue with Pippi Longstocking on March 15th and The Phantom Tollbooth in April. All seats are $8 and are available online at www.lamiradatheatre.com or by calling the La Mirada Theatre Box Office at (562) 944-9801 or (714) 994-6310. Three-show season subscriptions are available for $18. The theatre is located at 14900 La Mirada Blvd. in La Mirada, CA. Parking is free.
