A New Beauty & the Beast Comes to La Mirada Theatre

American Family Theater Brings Their Original Musical Production for Kids to the Stage

La Mirada, CA, February 23, 2007 – La Mirada Theatre for the Performing Arts is presenting American Family Theater's Beauty & the Beast as part of the theatre's Programs for Young Audiences series. American Family Theater will present their version of the much-loved tale on Sunday, March 11, 2007 at 1:30 & 3:30 p.m.

Beauty & the Beast is a timeless classic that comes to life on stage bursting with magic, energy and wonder. American Family Theater's Broadway for Kids returns to La Mirada Theatre with this award-winning musical original production, which has thrilled audiences of all ages nationwide. The book and lyrics are by Bob Penola and Todd Johnson wrote the music.

Programs for Young Audiences is designed to give children ages 5 and up and their families exposure to a diverse mix of national and international touring stage acts. La Mirada Theatre Executive Director Jeff Brown delights in seeing "...young audiences pouring through the doors of the theatre. The Programs for Young Audiences series was created to introduce young people to the stage, and for many, it is their first experience seeing a live performance."

Tickets are available for $8. Tickets and more information are available online at www.lamiradatheatre.com or by calling the La Mirada Theatre Box Office at (562) 944-9801 or (714) 994-6310.

The theatre is located at 14900 La Mirada Boulevard in La Mirada, near the intersection of Rosecrans Avenue, minutes north of where the 91 and 5 freeways meet. Parking is free.
